Revenue Cycle Contracts to Cash: Turning Rates into Reality

Are you capturing every dollar your hospital has negotiated?

Join us for “Contracts to Cash: Turning Rates into Reality,” the final session in our 3-part revenue cycle series led by Richelle Marting. This practical, strategy-focused webinar is designed specifically for patient access, coding, billing and appeals staff who want to strengthen reimbursement outcomes.

This session will:

- Identify common revenue cycle pain points and hidden revenue leaks.
- Break down plan types and payer rules that impact reimbursement.
- Explain key regulatory and legal considerations.
- Share practical strategies you can immediately implement in your workflows.

Richelle Marting is an attorney, Registered Health Information Administrator and certified coder who focuses on health care coding, billing and reimbursement issues. Her unique perspective bridges legal requirements and real-world operational practice.

If your team is responsible for moving claims from contract terms to cash collected, this session is for you.
